TERMINAL DISCLAIMER

Sir:

This is a terminal disclaimer under Rule 321(b) and (c) to obviate a nonstatutory double-patenting rejection over Claims 1-7 and 17-21 of commonly-owned, copending U.S. Application No. 09/986,511. This terminal disclaimer is being filed in response to an Office action of May 22, 2002 (Paper No. 6) in reference to the above-identified application.

The owner: (1) Crompton Corporation, a corporation organized under the laws of the state of Delaware, having its principal place of business at 199 Benson Road, Middlebury, CT 06749, who holds a 100 percent interest in Application No. 09/986,511, disclaims, except as provided below, the terminal part of the statutory term of any patent granted on the instant application, which would extend beyond the expiration date of the full statutory term defined in 35 USC §§ 154, 156, and 173 as shortened by any terminal disclaimer filed prior to the grant of any U.S. patent based on Application No. 09/986,511. The owner agrees that any patent granted on the instant application shall be enforceable only for and during such period that it and any U.S. patent based on Application No. 09/986,511 are commonly owned. This agreement runs with any patent granted on the instant application and is binding upon the grantee, its successors, or assigns.

In making the above disclaimer, the owner does not disclaim the terminal part of any patent granted on the instant application that would extend to the expiration date of the full statutory term as defined in 35 USC §§ 154, 156, and 173 of any U.S. patent based on Application No. 09/986,511, as shortened by any terminal disclaimer filed prior to the patent grant, in the event that such patent: (1) expires for failure to pay maintenance fee, (2) is held unenforceable, (3) is found invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, (4) is statutorily disclaimed in whole or terminally disclaimed under 37 CFR §§ 1.321, (5) has all claims cancelled by a re-examination certificate, (6) is reissued, or (7) is in any manner terminated prior to the expiration of its full statutory term as shortened by any terminal disclaimer filed prior to its grant.

Crompton Corporation is the successor-in-interest of CK Witco Corporation formed by the merger of Witco Corporation and Crompton & Knowles Corporation with a duly recorded name change to Crompton Corporation thereafter.

I declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true, and further, that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that any such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application of any patent issued thereon.

TERMINAL DISCLAIMER

Sir:

This is a terminal disclaimer under Rule 321(b) and (c) to obviate a nonstatutory double-patenting rejection over Claims 2-4 of commonly-owned U.S. Patent No. 6,127,468. This terminal disclaimer is being filed in response to an Office action of May 22, 2002 (Paper No. 4) in reference to the above-identified application.

The owner: (1) Crompton Corporation, a corporation organized under the laws of the state of Delaware, having its principal place of business at 199 Benson Road, Middlebury, CT 06749, who holds a 100 percent interest in U.S. Patent No. 6,127,468, disclaims, except as provided below, the terminal part of the statutory term of any patent granted on the instant application, which would extend beyond the expiration date of the full statutory term defined in 35 USC §§ 154, 156, and 173 as shortened by any terminal disclaimer filed prior to the grant of U.S. Patent No. 6,127,468. The owner agrees that any patent granted on the instant application shall be enforceable only for and during such period that it and the prior patents are commonly owned. This agreement runs with any patent granted on the instant application and is binding upon the grantee, its successors, or assigns.

In making the above disclaimer, the owner does not disclaim the terminal part of any patent granted on the instant application that would extend to the expiration date of the full statutory term as defined in 35 USC §§ 154, 156, and 173 of U.S. Patent No. 6,127,468, as shortened by any terminal disclaimer filed prior to the patent grant, in the event that such patent: (1) expires for failure to pay maintenance fee, (2) is held unenforceable, (3) is found invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, (4) is statutorily disclaimed in whole or terminally disclaimed under 37 CFR §§ 1.321, (5) has all claims cancelled by a re-examination certificate, (6) is reissued, or (7) is in any manner terminated prior to the expiration of its full statutory term as shortened by any terminal disclaimer filed prior to its grant.

Crompton Corporation is the successor-in-interest of CK Witco Corporation formed by the merger of Witco Corporation and Crompton & Knowles Corporation with a duly recorded name change to Crompton Corporation thereafter. The merger documents and the name change document are enclosed.

I declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true, and further, that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that any such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application of any patent issued thereon.

TERMINAL DISCLAIMER

Sir:

This is a terminal disclaimer under Rule 321(b) and (c) to obviate a nonstatutory double-patenting rejection over Claims 2 and 3 of commonly-owned U.S. Patent No. 6,204,339. This terminal disclaimer is being filed in response to an Office action of May 22, 2002 (Paper No. 4) in reference to the above-identified application.

The owner: (1) Crompton Corporation, a corporation organized under the laws of the state of Delaware, having its principal place of business at 199 Benson Road, Middlebury, CT 06749, who holds a 100 percent interest in U.S. Patent No. 6,204,339, disclaims, except as provided below, the terminal part of the statutory term of any patent granted on the instant application, which would extend beyond the expiration date of the full statutory term defined in 35 USC §§ 154, 156, and 173 as shortened by any terminal disclaimer filed prior to the grant of U.S. Patent No. 6,204,339. The owner agrees that any patent granted on the instant application shall be enforceable only for and during such period that it and the prior patents are commonly owned. This agreement runs with any patent granted on the instant application and is binding upon the grantee, its successors, or assigns.

In making the above disclaimer, the owner does not disclaim the terminal part of any patent granted on the instant application that would extend to the expiration date of the full statutory term as defined in 35 USC §§ 154, 156, and 173 of U.S. Patent No. 6,204,339, as shortened by any terminal disclaimer filed prior to the patent grant, in the event that such patent: (1) expires for failure to pay maintenance fee, (2) is held unenforceable, (3) is found invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, (4) is statutorily disclaimed in whole or terminally disclaimed under 37 CFR §§ 1.321, (5) has all claims cancelled by a re-examination certificate, (6) is reissued, or (7) is in any manner terminated prior to the expiration of its full statutory term as shortened by any terminal disclaimer filed prior to its grant.

Crompton Corporation is the successor-in-interest of CK Witco Corporation formed by the merger of Witco Corporation and Crompton & Knowles Corporation with a duly recorded name change to Crompton Corporation thereafter. The merger documents and the name change document are enclosed.
